

We are pleased to announce the 2016 Ohio Pollinator Habitat Initiative Symposium!

We are excited about our first annual symposium aimed at improving pollinator conservation awareness for all Ohioans and also to assist in the creation and/or improvement of pollinator habitat across the State.

We will have a variety of experts joining us, including presentations by:

Charlie Wooley

Midwest Deputy Regional Director
U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service

Pete Berthelsen

Director of Habitat Partnerships
Nebraska Pheasants and Quail Forever

Cora Lund Preston

Communications Specialist
